Patent, Trademark, Copyright, Computer Software Licenses, Transfers and Related Contracts

Gardner Linn has negotiated and/or prepared both simple and complex United States and international patent, trademark, copyright, and computer software licenses and other related agreements. We can also work closely with general counsel on contract matters which may not be strictly patent, trademark, and copyright in nature, but which are closely related.

International and U.S. Joint Ventures

Gardner Linn has assisted clients in structuring joint ventures with companies in various foreign countries including Europe, Mexico, and the Pacific Rim. Members of the firm have lectured in foreign countries and are members of international intellectual property organizations.
